

Dipl.-Kaufmann
Wolfgang Sassnowski
Partner

Overview

Studied business administration at the University of Mannheim

30 years' professional experience in management positions and specialist areas

International experience

Austria

Functions

Project manager, organisation group manager, management board member (commercial responsibilities)

Operational experience

Commercial management

Retail multiples (large-store clothing retail, small-store food/non-food retail)

Finances, financial planning and reporting

Accounting systems in accordance with HGB and IFRS

Process reengineering

Retail multiple

Supply chain management

Project management: introduction of a supply chain management system (concept, realisation, implementation) for clothing retail multiple.

Restructuring

Comprehensive restructuring project management

Logistics, supply chain management

Clothing manufacturer/brand

Professional career

Following business administration studies at the University of Mannheim, joined an internal software service provider in the Krupp Group as a project manager.

From 1979 to 1983, organisation group manager for Tchibo, Hamburg.

Thereafter until 2005, member of the management board (commercial responsibilities) of the clothing retailer Hettlage KGaA based in Munich.

Since the end of 2005, self-employed interim manager and consultant focusing on process optimisation, organisational development and restructuring.

Management
Support
Partners